REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

1. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The main reason for the allowance of claim 1 is that the prior art fails to disclose an interaxle differential having an input driven by said input shaft, a first output coupled to said primary output shaft, and a second output coupled to said chain drive sprocket; and an armature coupled to said chain drive sprocket. The main reason for the allowance of claim 8 is that the prior art fails to disclose the electromagnetic synchronizer and brake assembly having a first member coupled to said second output, a second member disposed adjacent said first member and coupled to said input shaft and electromagnetic coil disposed adjacent said second member. The main reason for the allowance of claim 14 is that the prior art fails to disclose the electromagnetic synchronizer and brake assembly having a first member coupled to said second output for rotation therewith, a second member disposed adjacent said first member and coupled to said input for rotation therewith and a stationary electromagnetic coil, whereby energization of said electromagnetic coil synchronizes and brakes rotation of said input and said second output.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
